

GERMANY'S DESPAIR ECHOED BY PRESS

Mo Take Any Terms Offered by Allies, Says the
"Vorwaerts."

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, Oct. 29. (Delayed)—
Foreign Austria's desire for an armistice which was not announced until some hours after the newspaper appeared, the Berlin Vorwaerts, the (German) socialist organ, in a delayed copy of which has been received here, published a leading editorial article which in effect is a declaration that Germany does not accept any terms offered her, regardless of how unjust or humiliating they may be.

The Vorwaerts expresses the fear that the terms of President Wilson's pronouncements, and especially the tone of the English and French conditions imposed upon Germany, are so humiliating that they will

Situation Utterly Hopeless.
 "There will be a moment of passionate insurance and the cry for a last desperate struggle will put into vibration many hidden strings of our being," says The Forerunner, "but we must say to ourselves while we are waiting for the right ourselves, die we have not the right to let others die—that it is now a matter of avoiding purely bloodshed."
 The Forerunner points out the utter hopelessness of Germany's position with Austria alone. "It is now or never," it says. "We must have the ability that the duration of the war can

Other German newspapers have not yet so completely abandoned all hope, but this may be due to the fact that, although the success of the Entente appears to have expected Austria's desire to capitulate.

Have Some Spunk Left.

Theodore Wolff in the Berlin Tagblatt, still thinks that "so long as Germany's power has not collapsed there are limits to the possibilities of the guarantees that the Entente may demand."

The Hamburg Freidenker prints a Berlin dispatch which asserts that Germany, with or without allies, will not permit herself "to be handled as Bulgaria."

main, in the Berlin Lokalanzeiger, condemns what he calls the Government's too ready acceptance of America's progressive demands. President Wilson, he declares, has been putting out successive feelers to find how far he could go, and the German Government's atti-

Germans are servile souls who will accept any humiliation.

Special Despatch to The Sen.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The Welsh rabbit has been banned for the period of the war. Along with many other luxuries it is on the general conservation list and not longer may be served by hotels and restaurants.
In outlining to-day a liberal interpretation of the general food conservation rules issued some time ago Mr. Hoover eases up on meats, butter and cream, but says the doxology for the Welsh rabbit in the following interpretation of General Order No. 7:
"Your attention is called to the need for enforcing the rule against the serving of more than half an ounce of cheddar, commonly called American, cheese. Strict observance of this rule will necessitate giving up the service of Welsh
